EXHIBIT A

I

Powers and Duties of Trustee

The following provisions shall apply to each trust created under this Agreement.

1.01 General Powers and Duties and Statement of Intent. The Grantors intend that the needs and interests of the current income beneficiaries of any Trust created hereunder shall take precedence over the interests of successor and remainder beneficiaries, and the Grantors instruct the Trustee to administer the Trusts created hereunder in accordance with such intent, provided, however, that this expression of intent does not supersede other instructions and direction to the Trustee contained in this document.

The Trustee is directed to refer to Arizona Revised Statutes as in effect during administration hereunder (including Title 14, Chapters 7 and 11, and specifically, A.R.S. §§ 14-7401, et seq. and A.R.S. §§ 14-10101) for instruction concerning trust proceedings, powers, duties and liabilities, the Uniform Principal and Income Act, and other relevant information. This direction and the above-referenced statutes serve as guidelines, but do not supersede other instructions and directions to the Trustee contained in this document, unless specifically so required by Arizona law.

The Trustee shall have all powers that may be exercised by individuals owning similar property in their own right, all powers described in A.R.S. §§ 14-3711, 14-3715 and 14-10814, et seq., as existing on the date of the execution of this Agreement that are not in conflict with this Agreement, and all additional powers and protection granted by statute to personal representatives and to trustees at the time of application that are not in conflict with this Agreement. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the following powers are set forth, by way of illustration, to be exercised from time to time by the Trustee in his or her discretion:

(1) Retain Property. To retain any property (including stock of any corporate Trustee hereunder or a parent or affiliate company) originally constituting the trust or subsequently added thereto, although not of a type, quality or diversification considered proper for trust investments;

(2) Investments. To invest and reinvest the trust property in bonds, stocks, mortgages, notes, bank deposits, shares of registered investment companies, interests in limited liability companies, options, futures, limited partnership interests, or other property of any kind, real or personal, domestic or foreign, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning proper investments for Trustees;

(3) Hold Property in Nominee's Name. To cause any property, real or personal, belonging to the trust to be held or registered in the Trustee's name or in the name of a nominee or in such other form as the Trustee deems best without disclosing the trust relationship;

(4) Business. To participate in the management of business enterprises as stockholder, partner or principal; to participate in any organization or reorganization of a business enterprise committing and transferring trust assets or funds for such purposes; to vote stock by proxy or otherwise; to deposit or transfer securities to protective or voting committees or similar bodies; and to exercise any options, execute any documents and delegate authority to act in its behalf in furtherance of any of these activities;

(5) Real Property. To directly or indirectly, through partnerships, limited liability companies, or other entities, acquire, own, sell, operate, lease, improve or develop real estate and to guarantee loans in connection with the acquisition, improvement, development or ownership of such property; to partition, subdivide, dedicate to public use, grant easements or other rights with respect to or otherwise deal with real estate;

(6) Lease Property. To lease trust property for any period of time though commencing in the future or extending beyond the term of the trust;

(7) Borrowing Power. To borrow money from private money lenders, banks, insurance companies or other lending institutions on such terms as the Trustee deems appropriate, and in connection therewith, to hypothecate, encumber, grant security interests in the assets of the Trust and execute guarantees to secure repayment of the borrowed sums;

(8) Sell Property. To sell at public or private sale, contract to sell, convey, exchange, transfer and otherwise deal with the trust property and any reinvestment thereof, and to sell put and covered call options, from time to time;

(9) I.R.C. Section 529 Plans. To fund or continue to fund any educational plans under I.R.C. § 529, to exercise the owner's rights with respect to any educational plans under I.R.C. § 529 held by or distributed to a trust established under this instrument or with respect to any educational plans under which a deceased Grantor is the owner ("deceased owner"); to designate a successor owner (including the Trustee hereunder) of any such plan, to the extent a successor owner is not otherwise designated; the authority to exercise the owner's rights shall include the authority to revest any such plan if the Trustee deems that the plan does not carry out the intentions of the deceased owner;

(10) Agents. To employ agents, attorneys, accountants, investment advisors, money managers and proxies and to delegate to them such powers as the Trustee considers desirable and to pay reasonable compensation to such advisors or employees in addition to fees otherwise payable to the Trustee, notwithstanding any rule of law otherwise prohibiting such dual compensation;

(11) Delegation. To delegate such power and authority as the Trustee deems necessary and appropriate by means of a written instrument or by means of a power of attorney; however, the Trustee shall not transfer his office to another or delegate the entire administration of the trust to a Co-Trustee or another; all persons may rely thereon and shall be exonerated from any and all liability if they deal with an agent on the basis of such an instrument of delegation or power of attorney;

(12) Claims. To compromise, contest, prosecute or abandon claims in favor of or against the trust;

(13) Distribution. To distribute income and principal in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and to allocate or distribute undivided interests or different assets or disproportionate interests in assets, and no adjustment shall be made to compensate for a disproportionate allocation of unrealized gain for federal income tax purposes; to value the trust property and to sell any part or all thereof in order to make allocation or distribution;

(14) Casualty Insurance. To purchase liability and casualty insurance of any kind for the protection of the trust estate, including comprehensive liability insurance;

(15) Allocation Between Income and Principal. To allocate receipts and disbursements between principal and income, as the Trustee in the Trustee's fiduciary capacity, reasonably determines, taking into consideration the Arizona principal and income statutes then in effect; to establish out of income and credit to principal reasonable reserves for depletion and depreciation in accordance with the Arizona principal and income statutes then in effect; to allocate short term or long term capital gains, or both, to income, and to include such gains in distributable net income as defined in I.R.C. § 643 and the regulations thereunder, as the Trustee reasonably determines;

(16) Pensions and Life Insurance. To elect, under the terms of any employee benefit plan, individual retirement plan or insurance contract, the mode of distribution of proceeds thereof, and no adjustment shall be made in the interests of the beneficiaries to compensate for the effect of the election; to take such action as the Trustee considers best to collect such benefits, but the Trustee need not incur expense or commence legal proceedings unless indemnified to the Trustee's satisfaction;

(17) Ancillary Trustee. To employ ancillary Trustees to hold title to property located outside the State of Arizona and to delegate to any ancillary Trustee such powers and duties as the Trustee deems necessary and appropriate;

(18) Margin Accounts. To buy, sell and trade in securities of any nature, including short sales, on margin, and for such purposes to maintain and operate margin accounts with brokers, and to pledge any securities held or purchased by the trust with such brokers as security for loans and advances made to the Trustee;

(19) Administrative Trust. To establish an Administrative Trust upon the death of the first spouse to die ("Deceased Grantor") and upon the death of the Surviving Grantor to hold assets of the Deceased Grantor's and Surviving Grantor's respective trust estates, pending allocation among the persons, trusts, and entities described in other Articles of this Agreement;

Upon the death of the Deceased Grantor, the Douglas and Jo Fritz Family Revocable Trust shall also be known as the Fritz Administrative Trust. Assets comprising the Douglas and Jo Fritz Family Revocable Trust/Fritz Administrative Trust may be held in the name of either the Douglas and Jo Fritz Family Revocable Trust or the Fritz Administrative Trust. During the course of trust administration, the Fritz Administrative Trust will be allocated to the persons, trusts, and entities designated as beneficiaries upon the death of the Deceased Grantor. Upon completion of allocation and distribution to these beneficiaries, the Administrative Trust will then terminate.

Upon the death of the Surviving Grantor, the Survivor's Trust shall also be known as the [Survivor's Name] Administrative Trust. Assets comprising this second Administrative Trust may be held in the name of the Survivor's Trust or in the name of the Administrative Trust. During the course of trust administration, this Administrative Trust will be distributed under the terms of the Trust Agreement. Upon completion of allocation and distribution, the Administrative Trust will then terminate.

(20) Discretionary Distributions Pending Termination of Administrative Trust; Treatment of Income Distributions. From time to time and at any time during the period between a Grantor's death and termination of the Administrative Trust, the Trustee may pay to any beneficiary who would be entitled to current distributions of net income and principal from one or more of the trusts created under this instrument as much income and principal as the Trustee considers necessary for such beneficiary's health, maintenance, education, and support. All such payments shall be in lieu of and credited toward any amount that would otherwise be allocated to such trusts. No payment shall be made to any beneficiary of any such trust that shall exceed the amount then remaining to be allocated to such trust as provided herein, nor shall any payment be made to any beneficiary of any such trust that shall exceed the amount that might properly be distributed to such beneficiary under the terms of such trust. Income distributions under this paragraph shall, in the Trustee's discretion, be treated as distributions from the Administrative Trust, rather than from the trust(s) established for the distributee.

(21) Funding Charitable Bequests. To distribute current gross income to fund bequests or distributions to charitable organizations;

(22) Banking. To designate a depository for a checking account, savings account, or safe deposit box;

(23) Other Powers. To perform other acts necessary or appropriate for the proper administration of the trust, execute and deliver necessary instruments and give full receipts and discharges.

1.02 Distribution Provisions For Minors When No Other Trust Herein Is Applicable. Except as otherwise provided in the Paragraph entitled Contingent Trust, if income or principal becomes payable to a minor or to a person who is incapacitated, as defined in this instrument, or to a person who, by reason of illness or mental or physical disability, is in the opinion of the Trustee unable properly to manage his or her affairs, then that income or principal (whether payment thereof is mandatory or discretionary) shall be paid or expended only in such of the following ways as the Trustee deems best:

- (1) To the beneficiary directly;
- (2) To the legally appointed guardian or conservator of the beneficiary;
- (3) Directly for the benefit of the beneficiary;
- (4) To an adult relative or friend in reimbursement for amounts properly advanced for the benefit of the beneficiary;
- (5) To a custodian for the benefit of the beneficiary under a Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; if the payment is made under a California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, it shall be made to the Trustee, as Custodian, for the minor until age 25, under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act;
- (6) To fund or continue to fund plans under I.R.C. § 529; or
- (7) In any other manner provided by law as to gifts or distributions to or for beneficiaries who are minors or under legal disability.

The Trustee shall not be liable to see to the application of such distributions, and the receipt for such distributions by any recipient thereof shall fully discharge the Trustee.

1.03 Distributions of Principal. The Trustee's discretion to distribute principal to or for the benefit of a beneficiary shall include authority to pay expenses of last illness, funeral, and burial expenses of that beneficiary after death, provided that any calculations of successor interests shall be made as if any such payments had been made from principal prior to the death of such beneficiary.

1.04 Termination of Trusts.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in this Paragraph, a Trustee in his or her discretion, may terminate any trust and distribute the trust estate to the trust beneficiaries in such shares as the Trustee considers will best accomplish the purposes of the trust if the value of the trust is so small that the Trustee determines it is uneconomical to continue the trust. The power to terminate shall not apply to a Trustee who is serving as a Trustee of a trust in which he or she is a trust beneficiary.

(2) A non-charitable trust may be modified or terminated on consent of the then living beneficiaries by an independent trustee appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction who concludes that modification or termination is not inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust or, because of circumstances not anticipated by the grantor of the trust, modification or termination will further the purposes of the trust. To the extent practicable, the modification must be made in accordance with the Grantors' probable intention.

1.05 Actions by Co-Trustees. While two or more persons are serving as Co-Trustees, they shall jointly and unanimously make decisions relating to investments, disbursements and distribution of trust assets. If the Co-Trustees cannot reach agreement, then any Co-Trustee may elect mediation or arbitration under the following subparagraphs:

(1) Mediation. If requested by a Co-Trustee, a dispute arising among the Co-Trustees shall be resolved by mediation in the following manner. Such mediation shall occur in the city in which a majority of the Trustees reside. If the Trustees reside in different cities, and cannot agree on a location for the mediation, the mediation shall take place in Tucson, Arizona. The mediator shall be an individual selected by the Co-Trustees. If the Co-Trustees cannot agree upon a mediator within ten days, then in that event, at the request of any Co-Trustee, the presiding judge of the Court with jurisdiction over probate and trust matters in the county in which the mediation is to occur shall select a mediator. All costs and expenses of mediation shall be paid by the Trust. The Grantors request, however, that the Co-Trustees use their best efforts to minimize costs and expenses under this Paragraph and that the Co-Trustees use their best efforts to jointly resolve disputes before resorting to mediation.

(2) Arbitration. If the Co-Trustees are unable to reach agreement through mediation, then a dispute arising between or among Co-Trustees shall be resolved by arbitration in the following manner. Such arbitration shall occur in the city in which a majority of the Trustees reside. If the Trustees reside in different cities and cannot agree on a location for the arbitration, the arbitration shall take place in Tucson, Arizona. The arbitration shall be conducted under the Arizona Revised Uniform Arbitration Act (A.R.S. § 12-3001, et seq.). Within ten days after either party requests arbitration in writing, the parties shall mutually select a single arbitrator. If the parties are unable to make a mutual selection, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the Pima County Superior Court upon motion under A.R.S. § 12-3011. The Grantors request that the Trustees use their best efforts to minimize costs and expenses under this Paragraph and that the Co-Trustees use their best efforts to jointly resolve disputes before resorting to arbitration.

1.06 Execution of Documents by Co-Trustee. Subject to the foregoing Paragraph entitled "Actions by Co-Trustees," during any period in which any two or more persons are serving as Co-Trustees of any trust created under this Agreement, any one of them shall have the power to bind the trust in any and all transactions, including but not limited to (1) collecting receipts; (2) paying disbursements; (3) securing assets; (4) writing checks and making withdrawals from bank accounts;

(5) purchasing, selling and pledging securities, real estate and other property; and (6) exercising any power conferred on the Trustee under the terms of this Agreement, and the action of any Trustee may be relied upon by third parties dealing with those Trustees.

1.07 Principal Residence. If any interest in the property that the Grantors are using as a principal residence at the time of the death of the Deceased Grantor becomes subject to the provisions of any trust created under this instrument, the Trustee shall permit the Surviving Grantor to occupy that residence without obligation to pay rent. In addition, and so long as the Surviving Grantor is living and competent, the Trustee shall sell the residence only with the Surviving Grantor's consent. If the Surviving Grantor is incapacitated as determined under this instrument, the Surviving Grantor's consent shall not be required. If the residence is sold, the Trustee is authorized to purchase a substitute residence for the benefit of the Surviving Grantor if the Trustee in the Trustee's discretion deems such purchase necessary or appropriate considering the circumstances then existing.

1.08 Failure of Issue. If upon the death of the Surviving Grantor, or at any time thereafter but prior to complete distribution of any trust created under this Agreement, there is no living trust beneficiary, any trust property not vested or effectively appointed shall be distributed one-half to Douglas Bruce Fritz's heirs-at-law and one-half to Jo Fritz's heirs-at-law. The heirs and the shares each shall take shall be determined under the then existing laws of descent of the State of Arizona.

1.09 Powers. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, no Trustee shall possess any power as a Trustee that would cause him or her to be treated as possessing a general power of appointment.

II

Contingent Trust for Incapacitated Beneficiary or Beneficiary Under Age 35

2.01 Contingent Trust for Incapacitated Beneficiary. Except as provided in Paragraph 2.03, if any beneficiary under this Agreement is or becomes incapacitated, as defined in Paragraph 2.01(5), then the distribution that would otherwise be made to that person shall be held in trust for the beneficiary's benefit under the terms and conditions set forth below. If such trust is subject to termination under the Paragraph entitled "Rule Against Perpetuities" contained in the Article entitled "Trust Administration" of this Exhibit "A," then the distribution shall immediately vest in the beneficiary for whose benefit the trust is created, but shall continue to be held in trust as set forth below:

(1) Discretionary Distributions. If and so long as such person is incapacitated, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of such person as much of the net income and principal of the trust as the Trustee in the Trustee's uncontrolled discretion deems necessary or desirable, accumulating and adding to the principal of the trust at the end of each fiscal year of the trust any net income not so paid or applied.

The Grantors and Trustees have signed this Exhibit "A" this 28th day of May, 2013, and acknowledge that it is incorporated in, merged with, and made a part of the foregoing Douglas And Jo Fritz Family Revocable Trust Agreement.
